DORDOGNE MOTORCYCLE HOLIDAYS

TRAIL RIDING HOLIDAYS & TOURS

CONTRACT

This contract must be signed by all participants and returned to DMH with the booking form and payment

1. Dordogne Motorcycle Holidays agrees to provide guided trail riding, Bed & Breakfast accommodation and evening meals in accordance with the description and information provided on it's website for the dates booked.
2. All participants will provide their own motorcycles and accept full responsibility for the roadworthiness and legality of the motorcycle. The motorcycle must be reasonably silenced and not display race numbers.
3. All participants accept full responsibility for any loss or injury caused during the holiday.
4. All participants agree to ride their motorcycles in a responsible manner both on the road and the trails, and to behave in a courteous manner towards walkers, horse riders and farmers who they may meet in the countryside
5. All participants agree to abide by the rules of the road in France which include riding with the headlight on. Participants must carry the vehicle registration document, vehicle insurance and Passport at all times

Cancellation:

Once you have paid your deposit we recommend that you obtain travel insurance with a cancellation clause that will refund your payment in the event of cancellation for unforeseen reasons.

If a member of your group drops out resulting in the group size falling into the next price band remaining participants will be required to pay the higher rate unless they can find a replacement. Deposit payments are not refundable but can be transferred to a new participant on receipt of a formal cancellation letter and a booking form completed by the new participant

I have read and agree to the above terms and conditions:
